NOTICE OF FORECLOSURE.
 Whereas, George W. Stanley of Oxford, in the County of Oxford, in the State of Maine, by his Attorney at Law, George Deane, Esq., of the County of Oxford, State of Maine, has duly filed in the County of Oxford, a certain mortgage, bearing date the 1st day of October, 1888, and recorded in Oxford County Deeds, Book 215, Page 383, conveying to said George W. Stanley, his heirs and assigns, the undersigned, a certain parcel of real estate, situate in said Oxford, and the same is as follows: being all and singular the premises conveyed to Lydie Stanley by Wm. Stanley, her husband, by his last will and testament, as recorded with Oxford Registry of Deeds, Book 161, Page 488; and whereas, the said mortgage is now due and payable, and the same has therefore by reason of the breach of condition therein, I, claim a foreclosure in said mortgage.
 In Testimony Whereof, I, claim a foreclosure in said mortgage.
 Given Nov. 3, 1890.
 SAMUEL E. COBB.
